

Scrapbook Pre-Writing

Directions: As your pre-writing activity for this assignment, think about a time in your life when you explored something new. Take notes in the boxes to help guide your writing.

The template consists of four main sections arranged in a grid-like fashion. Each section has a title box and a larger writing area.

- Top Left: A large rectangular box with a right-pointing arrow shape on its right side. Inside, at the top left, is a smaller box containing the text "My exploration: Write a short version of your".
- Top Right: A large downward-pointing arrow shape. Inside, at the top, is a smaller box containing the text "First step".
- Bottom Left: A large rectangular box. Inside, at the top left, is a smaller box containing the text "Conclusion: Be sure to include how this experience changed you or helped you grow.".
- Bottom Right: A large left-pointing arrow shape. Inside, at the top, is a smaller box containing the text "Third step".

There is also a "Second step" box located between the "First step" and "Third step" boxes, which is a downward-pointing arrow shape with a smaller box inside containing the text "Second step".
